1. Membership

Creating an account and using Mirage is free. A free account includes:

- Your profile, and discovery of other members for friendship, dating, or marriage
- Communities, events, and gatherings
- Hearth, the feed for married members
- Companion, testimonies, and The Mirage Journal newsletter
- A limited number of open conversations at a time — the current allowance is shown in the app

We do not charge to create an account, to appear in discovery, or to be matched. No card details are collected at sign-up.

2. Counselling sessions

Counsellors on Mirage are independent professionals. When you book a session with one, you pay for that session. Three kinds of session can be booked:

- Personal — one member with a counsellor
- Couples — a couple with a counsellor
- Group — a small group with a counsellor

Some counsellors offer free sessions, and these are clearly marked as free on their profile. Where a counsellor charges, the exact fee and currency appear on their profile and again on the booking screen before you are asked to pay.

3. How session fees are set

Mirage does not set counselling fees, and there is no standard price for a session. Counselling is a professional market: each counsellor sets their own rate against their training, experience and demand, and reviews it as that market moves.

A counsellor may change their rate at any time. The rate shown at the moment of booking is the rate you pay for that session.

Of every paid session, Mirage retains a platform commission of 15% of the session fee, and the counsellor receives the remaining 85%. The commission is already included in the price you are shown — it is not added on top, and there are no booking fees, service charges, or other extras at checkout.

The amount displayed before you confirm is the total amount that will be charged to your card or account.

4. Plus and Premium

Mirage plans to offer paid membership tiers, Plus and Premium, with benefits such as unlimited open conversations. These tiers are not yet available. They cannot be purchased today, no prices have been published, and no member is charged for them. This page will be updated with the full terms and prices before either tier goes on sale.

5. Payments and currency

Payments are processed by Paystack. Mirage does not store your card details; they are handled entirely by the payment processor.

- Sessions are priced and charged in Nigerian Naira (~~£~~) unless a counsellor's profile states another currency
- You can pay by card or bank transfer, and by any other method Paystack offers at checkout
- Payment is taken at the time of booking, and the session is confirmed once payment succeeds
- A receipt is emailed to you, and every payment stays visible in your Mirage account

6. Refunds and cancellations

A counselling session reserves a professional's time, so cancellations are handled on a notice basis.

- You cancel 24 hours or more before the session — you receive a full refund of the amount paid.
- You cancel less than 24 hours before the session — the fee is not refunded, because the time has been held for you. You may ask to reschedule once at no extra cost, and it is granted where the counsellor's calendar allows it.
- The counsellor cancels, or does not attend within 15 minutes of the start time — you receive a full refund automatically, or you may reschedule at no cost, whichever you prefer.
- A technical fault on Mirage prevents the session going ahead — you receive a full refund or a free reschedule.

Refunds are returned to the original payment method and typically arrive within 5–10 business days, depending on your bank. Refunds are for the full amount you paid, including Mirage's commission.

If a session did not go ahead as booked, or you believe you were charged in error, email support@themiragehub.com within 14 days of the session date and we will investigate and respond within 5 business days.
